Home Loan Process At Credit Union

Follow These Steps To Get A Home Loan From A Credit Union

Become A Member

Before applying for a loan it is imperative to become a credit union's member. For this, you must look at the eligibility criteria and proceed accordingly.

Apply For The Loan

Talk to the concerned staff member and understand the loan options available. Once you choose a plan, provide the loan officer with the documents needed to start the process.

Get Pre-Approved

Submit a formal application and documents so that the credit union can reveal the loan amount that you are eligible for. Other details such as rate of interest and premium amount will also be provided to you.

Go For Final Approval

After you decide which home to buy, the credit union will review your application. You will also need a co-signer to finalize the deal. The loan will be sanctioned as soon as the legal formalities are over.
